

Welcome to AMAGOA

AMAGOA is a Private Gallery in South Yarra, just off cosmopolitan Chapel Street.

Aboriginal & Modern Art Gallery of Australia (AMAGOA) is an exclusive, prestigious private art gallery located just off Chapel Street, in Melbourne's cosmopolitan South Yarra. As proud members of ART.TRADE, AMAGOA's private gallery offers a new and exciting approach to the appreciation of Contemporary Aboriginal Artworks. During weekends and weekdays from 9am to 9pm each day, AMAGOA is open by private appointment by calling (03) 9826 9008 or 0433 112 878.

AMAGOA takes pride in methodically seeking out the highest quality modern indigenous art from all parts of Australia offering blue chip works from a combination of the established and distinguished elder members of the Aboriginal art community, right through to an exciting mix of new and emerging artists.

Working closely with other galleries, communities, art centers and artists right across Australia, AMAGOA is able to provide both local and international private & corporate clients a collection of contemporary Aboriginal art of the highest caliber, whilst ensuring fair and ethical trade of indigenous art. Visit the ART.TRADE website for more information on the Code of Ethics which we adhere to. <http://www.arttrade.com.au/members.htm>

AMAGOA's personalized advice and service can assist collectors in the development of a strong and prolific art collection.

It is the commitment of AMAGOA to represent only the finest of Aboriginal art and to provide both local and international clientele a choice of cutting edge modern artworks, with a diversity of styles, in this new and exciting art sector.

Our stockroom boasts an extensive collection to suit the most discerning local and international buyer, whilst not forgetting the one-off art buyer whose purchase may represent their first exciting step into the Aboriginal art world. Customers are able to choose from modern emerging artists works which can offer value-for-money and good long term investment.

Viewings are by appointment, prior arrangement or by special invitation to one of our gallery functions.
